

Contents

Vol 44 – nos 2–3
June/Sept 2005

Social Science
Information
— sur les — sciences sociales

Special issue: Social Sciences in Latin America
Numéro spécial: Les sciences sociales en Amérique latine (1930–2003)

Guest Editor/Éditeur invité: Hélgio Trindade

Hélgio Trindade, Les sciences sociales en Amérique latine (1930–2003): présentation

Miguel Murmis, Sociology, political science and anthropology: institutionalization, professionalization and internationalization in Argentina

Hélgio Trindade, Social sciences in Brazil in perspective: foundation, consolidation and diversification

Manuel Antonio Garretón, Social sciences and society in Chile: institutionalization, breakdown and rebirth

José Luis Reyna, An overview of the institutionalization process of social sciences in Mexico

Gerónimo de Sierra, Social sciences in Uruguay

Afránio García, Circulation internationale et formation d'une "école de pensée" latino-américaine (1945–2000)

Manuel Antonio Garretón, Miguel Murmis, Gerónimo de Sierra and Hélgio Trindade, Social sciences in Latin America: a comparative perspective – Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Mexico and Uruguay

0539-0184(200506)44:2/3;1-3